

ATTORNEY ADVISOR/OCDETF DEPUTY DIRECTOR (GS-0905-15)
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
CRIMINAL DIVISION
ORGANIZED CRIME DRUG ENFORCEMENT TASK FORCE (OCDETF)
WASHINGTON, DC

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT NUMBER: 07-CRM-OCDETF-030
OPEN TO ALL SOURCES

About the Office:

The OCDETF program is a cross-cutting, multi-agency approach to strategic counter-drug enforcement. The OCDETF program is a nationwide program which combines the resources and techniques of member agencies in concentrated, long-term investigations designed to attack and destroy major narcotics trafficking and money laundering organizations. The participating Federal agencies are: the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives; Criminal Division; Drug Enforcement Administration; Federal Bureau of Investigation; U.S. Marshals Service; U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement; Internal Revenue Service; U.S. Coast Guard; United States Attorneys' Offices; and numerous State and local agencies.

Responsibilities and

Opportunity Offered:

The Criminal Division of the U.S. Department of Justice, is seeking an experienced attorney to serve as the OCDETF Program Deputy Director. The position is located in the OCDETF Executive Office in Washington, D.C. The incumbent will have supervisory and management responsibility for a staff of approximately 15 federal and 6 contract employees. The individual must have prior experience in handling complex narcotics and money laundering investigations and prosecutions. This background will allow the incumbent to assist with program development, training, and the ability to represent the program at various agency meetings and conferences. The incumbent will be required to analyze policies, resource needs and program performance indicators and identify legal and policy ramifications; assist in the formulation, development and presentation of budget submissions and reprogramming requests and prepare talking points and background materials for the Office of Management and Budget and/or Congressional staff; and, prepare and present reports and/or briefings for the Attorney General, Deputy Attorney General, ONDCP Director, OCDETF Executive Committee and other entities on the state of the OCDETF Program and specific OCDETF initiatives. The incumbent will coordinate the development and implementation of training in various subjects, such as electronic surveillance, financial investigations and asset forfeiture. In support of the OCDETF Director, the incumbent will also be responsible for oversight of OCDETF initiatives, including the OCDETF Fusion Center and the Consolidated Priority Organization Target Program.

Qualifications:

Required qualifications: Applicants must possess a J.D. degree, be an active member of the bar (any jurisdiction), and have at least three years of post-J.D. legal experience as a federal prosecutor, or as a Criminal Division trial attorney, with extensive experience in the area of drug and money laundering investigations and prosecutions

Preferred qualifications: Applicants should also possess: strong speaking and presentation skills; experience in policy development; experience in the Federal budget process, including budget formulation and execution and program performance measurement; experience with multi-agency investigations or programs; strong background in criminal prosecution including long-term, complex narcotics investigations; experience in law enforcement intelligence activities; experience with electronic surveillance and related legal issues; strong experience in conducting domestic and international financial investigations; familiarity with the Federal investigatory agencies; experience in the training of, and development of professional training for, prosecutors and agents; and strong writing and analytical skills.

Travel: The Deputy Director position requires substantial travel including travel to the 9 annual regional conferences.

Salary Information: Current salary and years of experience determine the appropriate salary level, (GS-15) $110,363-$143,471 per annum
